

COLLOCATIONS WORKSHEET

1. Look up the word(s) the teacher assigned to your group on <http://www.just-the-word.com/> and enter what you found in the table below.

ADJECTIVE	ADJ+NOUN	ADJ+PREP	ADJ+ADV/ADV+ADJ
impatient
example
irritated
example
mysterious

example
responsible
example
sympathetic
example
suspicious
example
uncertain

example
unreasonable
example
unsuccessful
example

2. Listen to what the other groups found and write their findings down in the table above.

3. In the example sentences above, circle any interesting collocations that include a combination of today's key words (adjectives) and verbs and write them down here.

4. Write a story using as many newly learned collocations as possible.
You get a point for every collocation accurately used. The student with the most points is the winner.